Donald Johnson

Dear Recording Academy Member:

I am pleased to enclose your 54th Annual GRAMMY Awards Nominating Ballot. The Entry List for selections of this year's nominations is available online. Please follow the instructions on the reverse side of this letter.

With your enclosed Nominating Ballot and online Entry List, you will have the responsibility and the privilege as a Voting Member to select your choices for the 54th Annual GRAMMY Awards nominations. Each voter is a critical part of maintaining the integrity of The GRAMMY Awards; please take your responsibility seriously.

Let only your high standards of artistic and/or technical expertise be your guide. The Entry List contains outstanding recordings created by those who depend upon your knowledgeable vote. Please judge by quality alone, uninfluenced by personal friendships, company loyalties, regional preferences, mass sales, or popularity.

Kindly note our new rule regarding voting this year: Previously, voters were allowed to vote in up to nine genre Fields plus the General Field on this first ballot. Now, voters may vote in up to 20 Categories in the genre Fields plus the four Categories of the General Field. Select your Categories with discretion, voting only in the Categories in which you are best qualified.

Nominations will be announced on Wednesday, November 30 (and The Recording Academy will again present our Live Prime Time GRAMMY Nominations Special that evening on CBS). A Final Ballot to select the GRAMMY recipients in each category will be mailed to all voting members in December. Results will be announced during the 54th Annual GRAMMY Awards telecast on Sunday, February 12, 2012, 8 p.m. ET/PT from Staples Center in Los Angeles, on the CBS Television Network. The attention of a worldwide international audience will be focused that evening on the results of our Academy Members' nominating and voting process. Please cast your ballots in a manner that will bring credit to yourself, to the deserving nominees, and to the GRAMMY Awards.

Kind Regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Neil Portnow".

Neil Portnow
President/CEO
